What They're Saying

DS.

"Unfortunately for us, we just moved out due to needing to relocate to be closer to work. That being said, we absolutely loved living here. We lived in downtown SF for 2 years before, so being here was a complete dream. Yes, there are some homeless around, but that is typical for any downtown area. However, this area has a nice balance of being fairly quiet even though you are a block of Santa Clara where there is lots to do. The management team goes above and beyond to make residents feel welcome and to foster a clean and well-maintained property. We will dearly miss our old apartment as well as the management team; Miguel, Vincent and Liz."

Earth Day/Arbor Day 2025

Pedestrian Rodeo and a Tree Climbing Demo!

Annually, people nationwide support environmental protection on Earth Day and Arbor Day and acknowledge trees' vital role. Trees aid in purifying the air, combating climate change, offering wildlife habitats, and conserving energy. Join Santa Clara's Earth Day/Arbor Day Celebration at Central Park Pavilion on Thursday, April 10, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. This free event honors the environment with performances, tree climbing demos, planting ceremonies, educational booths promoting green initiatives, and a pedestrian rodeo!
