What They're Saying

RM.

"It's been absolutely great living at The James. The leasing and the maintenance people have been wonderful. Just had William come by for a work order and he was extremely polite, knowledgeable, and respectful of our space. I'm pleasantly surprised so far and hope the same is true for the future!"

Live Well

Urban Recharge at San Pedro Square

In the fast-paced environment of downtown San Jose, "living well" means finding moments to recharge and connect. Our January Live Well challenge is to embrace the vibrant energy of San Pedro Square Market—but with intention.

Your Wellness Mission:

Mindful Bites: Instead of rushing, choose a unique vendor and savor every bite of your meal. Pay attention to the flavors, textures, and aromas.

Tech-Free Talk: Challenge yourself to put your phone away and strike up a conversation with a friend or even a new neighbor.

Sensory Walk: Notice the architecture, the street art, and the buzz of conversation as you walk through the square. Engage all your senses in the present moment.

It's about turning everyday routines into opportunities for genuine connection and mindful presence.
